Highway Condition "Just Awful"

Water Three Feet Deep Stalls Cars; Hazard To Tourist Trade

They'd never make a movie called "The Road to Lac la Biche." It's a mess! Those who have travelled it lately, particularly a stretch near Donatville, which is north of Boyle, say "It's awful."

Numerous cars last weekend were being stalled because of water splashing onto their motors. Cars were forced to cross through three feet of water which was 30 feet wide.

The only work done last week to "correct" the situation was to have a grader build a three-foot dike of sand and mud which soon gave way and made the situation worse. The road needs gravel and this spot needs a big culvert or bridge.

Department of highways officials said Tuesday they had "made arrangements to do something about it."

Lac la Biche constituency is the only one in Alberta without any paved roads. Some people are asking if it isn't because there is no Social Credit MLA there.

Fifteen miles of new grade is being built in the constituency every year on Highway 46 but it will take until 1967 to reach Lac la Biche at this rate. Residents of the constituency believe the government should build a standard paved highway starting south from Lac la Biche at 15 miles per year to meet up in 1964 or 1965 with the road snaking up from Abee.

Lac la Biche constituency, which has terrific tourist potential because of its good fishing & hunting, could develop busy summer resorts—but highways must be in good condition to keep tourists coming back.

Plamondon Goes Western For First Annual Rodeo

By E. OTTO HOHN

The French Canadian town of Plamondon went "western" when cowboys and cowgirls, Breeds and Indians foregathered there July 23 and 24 for the town's first annual rodeo.

Following a parade of the contestants and of a series of original floats through the town on Monday morning, the rodeo, sponsored by the Plamondon Community League, was held under sunny skies on Monday and Tuesday afternoons The arena, corral, shutes and grandstand had been built by the voluntary efforts of a team of public spirited local men, led by rodeo manager Ross Plamondon, on land belonging to the town's Community League to the east of the Memorial to the Pioneer settlers of the district. Macdonald brothers of Hylo furnished the horses and Hereford cattle used in the events. One of their bucking horses. "Grizzly Anne" distinquished herself by the most spirited action, accompanied by emphatic grunts both before she tossed her riders and later when other horsemen had their work cut out to drive her out of the arena.

First place for saddle bronc riding went to Willy Hagen of Invermore, B.C.; Bill Sands of Rocky Mountain House took first in the bare back, cow riding and wild cow milking contests. The calves used in the calf-roping event were fast and agile and managed to avoid at least the first throw of most of the riders in the event won by Jim Bailey of Colinton. Robby Macdonald of Hylo, took first prize in Tuesday's wild horse race and also did skilful pick up work on both afternoons.

Kenny House of South Carsland was placed first for Junior steer riding. The half mile flat race, ridden by men and boys of the district on Monday afternoon was won by Euclid Menard of Plamondon. Good crowds enjoyed the exciting and often amusing rodeo events on both afternoons and watched the interesting performance of two Cree dancers from the Hobbema Indian Reserve during the intermission on Monday afternoon.

Following the displays of horsemanship in the arena, a ball game and a well attended dance were held on both rodeo days.

New Dairy Heat Pump Developed

Edmonton district dairy farmers will be interested in a new dairy "heat pump" developed in Britain.

A device which can recover heat equivalent to 10,000 units of electricity from the conventional refrigeration equipment installed in most farm dairies, has been developed by Britain's Electrical Research Association, and is now ready for commercial production.

Called the "heat pump", it is a heat exchange device which provides water for cleansing purposes at 150 degrees Fahrenheit simply by extracting the normal heat from fresh milk, which must in any case be cooled to 40 degrees Fahrenheit soon after milking.

At farms where cooling has so far been dependent on the use of well water, it has been estimated that savings of some 500,000 gallons annually of water with a dairy herd of 50 head will be possible.

The manufacturers is Electrical Research Association, 265 Strand, London, W.C.2, England.

Bishop Of St. Paul Blesses St. Alphonsus Parish Church

BOYLE—The new St. Alphonsus Parish Church and Rectory were blessed here on July 15 by the Bishop of St. Paul, Most Rev. D. Lussier, C.SS.R, D.D., assisted by Very Rev. G. J. Lawrence of Smoky Lake and Rev. R. Bissonnette of Venice and the pastor, Rev. W. J. O'Farrell. A large number of clergy were present in the sanctuary.

Although the weather and roads were bad, the new church was filled to capacity for the occasion. It was a great day for the parishioners, and one could see their joy as they beheld their bishop perform the blessing and offer Pontifical Mass. This was the day they had worked and prayer for, and as most of the work of the new structure was done by them, their pride was all the more.

The new church is built of brick and cement block. The inside is richly finished in mahogany and knotty pine. The new pews are of solid oak and were made in Edmonton. Other furnishings are from Montreal and Winnipeg.

In his sermon the bishop congratulated the parishioners and the pastor on their beautiful church and stressed the importance of a good building which is set aside for the worship of God, thus becoming in a spiritual sense the gate of heaven in which the parishioners receive the sacraments on their journey through life, and a place where they come to worship God and show their love of Him. After the blessing, a banquet was held in the Community Centre in honor of the bishop.

At the banquet, J. Radmanovich, the mayor of Boyle, spoke on behalf of the town. He stated that the new church was a great asset to the community. Very Rev. Father Lawrence spoke on the virtue of faith, and went on to show how the new church was a result of the faith of the parishioners. O. J. Mikalonis, the postmaster of Boyle, in his own efficient and heart warming way, gave a history of the Mission of Boyle and of the early hardships in having Sunday service. He went on to tell of the start made on the new building and how the people co-operated with the then missioner, Rev. Father Skaluba. On behalf of the parishioners, he thanked the bishop for having raised the Mission of Boyle to the status of a parish and in giving the parishioners a resident priest. George Rosich, the president of St. Alphonsus Men's Club, in a few well chosen words, thanked everyone who had made the day a success.

The pastor, Rev. W. J. O'Farrell, who is the first pastor of the new parish of Boyle and who acted as master of ceremonies for the banquet, thanked the parishioners for the wonderful co-operation they had given him in completing the church and rectory. The fruit of their efforts was there to be seen by all and they had every reason to be proud of their work. He also expressed sincere thanks to the out-of-town visitors who came from Edmonton, Camrose, Athabasca, Heisler, Smoky Lake and Donatville for their help and interest.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation to the bishop by the president of the Parish Council of the CWL, Mrs. Joan McNamara, and the treasurer, Mrs. O. J. Mikalonis, of a cheque, the proceeds of a tea sponsored by the CWL for the building fund of the new diocesan junior seminary. Bishop Lussier expressed his thanks for their efforts on behalf of this worthy cause, which is one of the most important needs in the diocese.

There is nothing wrong with the idea that looking ahead and planning for the future is smart.
